We offer a wide selection of tools and supplies for the professional as well as the occasional rigger. Professionals know that quality materials and tools make the job not only easier, but also less expensive. The occasional rigger will do well to follow this credo.

This list includes but a small selection of the total available at sailing services, inc. If you do not see it here, give us a call. You can be sure we have it at the shop or will find it for you today.
